The Samaritan's Purse

Carole Cullis wishes to thank all contributors to The Samaritan's Purse. A total of 45 boxes have been sent off.

Projector

We are currently unable to use the projector and are making do with the single, larger TV. If you find the text a little small, please move nearer the front or use the hymn books. We apologise for the inconvenience.

▶◀▶◀▶◀▶◀▶◀▶ DAILY PRAYER ▶◀▶◀▶◀▶▶◀▶◀▶▶◀▶▶

- Sun: Give thanks for those no longer with us who have been a force for good in our life.
- Mon: Empower those who seek peaceful solutions in our troubled world.
- Tues: Thank you for the sense of sight and give support to all who seek to eradicate blindness.
- Wed: Be aware of those who fear the darker evenings and offer support as appropriate.
- Thurs: Give comfort to anybody who has suffered a loss or serious disappointment.
- Fri: Give thanks for the acts of love and kindness shown to us this past week.
- Sat: Bless the preparations for tomorrow's worship. May we find it meaningful and challenging.

During the year we remember all our Church Family.

This week:

Rosina Bayley, Valerie Berry and Jane Bond

HMRC Redevelopment

Joe Crossley from Camargue has made arrangements for the second event for the Barrington Road redevelopment. This will take place on Wednesday 6th November 2019. PLEASE NOTE: the event will only be open to the public between 14:00 and 20:00 – the rest of the booked time is for setup, preparation, and clear-up only. At the last event, some people arrived while they weren't yet ready to receive them, so he has asked me to make it clear to our Church members that the time to visit the exhibition is between 2pm and 8pm. The event is being held in the Sanctuary on this occasion and anyone attending the event should enter through the front doors of the Church.

Wilma Smith, Hall Letting Secretary
